

The Central Puget Sound Economic Development District is separate legal entity housed at the Puget Sound Regional Council

EDD Bylaws

Rules on composition of the board, board member terms, meeting requirements, processes for elections, establishment of committees, budgeting process, and other areas.

Last updated: December 2017

PSRC/EDD MOA

Describes interaction between the two agencies. Guides staffing, shared services, use of office space and boardroom space, and implementation of the EDD workplan by PSRC.

Last updated: August 2015

June–August

Committee works with PSRC staff to identify areas to consider for updates

September EDD Board Meeting

Discuss areas that may need changes, trade offs, and get board input

September–November

Staff works with Committee to develop any recommendations for changes

December EDD Board Meeting

Present recommendations to EDD Board
Requires 2/3 supermajority vote to change Bylaws

“Approve the establishment of a Board committee to review the EDD bylaws and the Memorandum of Agreement between the EDD and PSRC and make recommendations for changes.”

Committee Composition

- EDD President Dave Morell
- Mayor Ed Stern
- Commissioner Axel Strakeljahn
- Michael Catsi
- Stacey Crnich

