

Friday, October 16, 2026

10:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. • Virtual – Zoom Webinar

PROGRAM

- 10:00 Welcome
Paul Inghram, Puget Sound Regional Council
Karl Almgren, Regional TOD Committee co-chair
- 10:05 Washington State TOD Requirements – Yonah Freemark, Urban Institute
The Urban Institute will share their research and perspectives on Washington’s landmark TOD legislation passed in 2025
- 10:30 Recommended Strategies for Equitable TOD – Molly Wagner, Center for Neighborhood Technology
What is equitable transit-oriented development? The Center for Neighborhood Technology will provide a national perspective on case studies and best practices to support equitable development
- 10:50 Q & A

11:00 Break

11:05 Regional TOD Opportunities at Sound Transit – Mara D’Angelo and Miranda Redinger, Sound Transit

Sound Transit staff will present on the agency’s TOD Strategy, major recent accomplishments, and opportunities on the horizon

11:25 First Out of the Gate: City of Vancouver Approach to New State TOD Requirements – Chad Eiken and Chim Chune Ko, City of Vancouver

City of Vancouver staff will share insights from their experience implementing new state TOD requirements and lessons learned for other jurisdictions

11:50 Q & A

12:00 Wrap-up

TOD Walking Tours

Shoreline: Friday, October 16, 1:30 – 3:00 p.m.

Redmond: Friday, October 23, 1:30 – 3:00 p.m.

Both tours are sold out.

Learn more about planning for equitable TOD at <https://www.psrc.org/our-work/transit-oriented-development>