What is the Public Participation Plan

- Establishes consistent procedures to ensure people have reasonable opportunities to be involved in the regional planning process.
- Provides examples of the types of tools and techniques PSRC may use to communicate with the public.
- PSRC completes this plan to satisfy federal requirements.
- Detailed outreach activities are part of each planning process, like Regional Transportation Plan and VISION 2050.

Update Process

- PSRC staff began the process last June
 - Last update in 2018, only minor changes have been made since 2012
- Provided a general frame to federal partners last July
- We will be asking the Executive Board to release the plan for a 45-day public comment period coming in March
 - Including Focus Groups with local planners and engagement specialists
- Plan will be adopted in June

Update Process

- Key updates were shared with the Equity Advisory Committee, we met last July and December.
- Led to revised Goals, Guiding Principles, Desired Outcomes, and Best Practices.
