

Legacy of Structural Racism Interactive Report

In coordination with the Equity Advisory Committee, as part of the Regional Equity Strategy, PSRC has launched a powerful new web-based tool that chronicles the history of discriminatory policy in the Puget Sound region. The resource is intended to provide an accurate understanding of structural racism for policy makers, public agency staff and community members to help evolve and shape current and future strategies to address the consequences of past harms.

Explore the Legacy of Structural Racism Interactive Report

Puget Sound Regional Council