Draft Regional Transportation Plan

Executive Board
January 25, 2018
Transportation Plan Update Schedule

- Summer 2017: Update planning work on various topic areas and ongoing engagement activities

- Fall 2017: Draft model results, public engagement findings and final planning work
  - Draft plan is developed, brief to boards

- Winter 2018: Draft Transportation Plan is released for 45-day public comment period

- Spring 2018:
  - Board Action: Recommend updated plan to PSRC General Assembly
  - PSRC General Assembly adopts the update to the plan
Regional Transportation Plan

- Supports the Regional Growth Strategy
- Provides transportation choices
- Improves access to jobs, opportunity, destinations
- Improves reliability of the system
- Improves air quality, reduces greenhouse gases, supports improved water quality
- New financial strategy to deliver investments
Highlighting Investments

- Projects completed, underway or funded in each county
- Extraordinary funding accomplishments over the last two years, including Connecting Washington, ST3, local transit and city initiatives
- First regional integrated transit plan
Getting Ahead on Key Issues

• Maintenance & preservation
• Sustainable financial strategy
• Transportation technology
• Climate change
Addressing near-term gaps

• Identified needs for city streets, county roads and local transit

• Working with WSDOT on a State Facilities Action Plan
  • I-5 preservation, near-term efficiencies
  • HOV policy
  • Seismic preparedness
  • Local priority state routes
Programs included in the plan

Counties

Cities

Local Transit

Sound Transit

State Ferries

State Highways

Other Regional
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Regional Outcome</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Maintain Air Quality and Reduce Climate Change Emissions</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Support Centers</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Improve Freight Mobility</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Increase Health Activity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Improve access to Jobs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Maintain and Preserve the System</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Provide Multimodal Choices</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preserve Puget Sound Land and Water</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Provide a Safe and Secure Transportation System</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Improve Social Equity in Access to Opportunity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Improve Travel Time and Reliability for People</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Draft Plan released for Public Comment

• 45-day Public Comment Period from mid-December through the end of January

• Public comment portal with a take notes as you go feature

• Compile comments and bring back to PSRC Boards
  - High-level review in February
  - Detailed comments in March
Transportation Plan Update Schedule

Summer 2017
- Update planning work on various topic areas and ongoing engagement activities

Fall 2017
- Draft model results, public engagement findings and final planning work
- Draft plan is developed, brief to boards

Winter 2018
- Draft Transportation Plan is released for 45-day public comment period

Spring 2018
- Board Action: Recommend updated plan to PSRC General Assembly
- PSRC General Assembly adopts the update to the plan
Questions?

Kelly McGourty
Senior Program Manager—Transportation Planning
kmcgourty@psrc.org
206-971-3601