EDA administering funds through the 2020 competitive Economic Adjustment Assistance (EAA) program

$1.5 billion in funds made available starting May 7th

Grant Match: EDA covers expected 80% or more of costs

Projects:

– Distress Criteria – Pandemic Response Requirement
– Projects aligned with an EDA approved regional Comprehensive Economic Development Strategy (CEDS)
– Projects reviewed as submitted/until funding is exhausted
Regional Funding Amounts

- Seattle Regional Office – $266,000,000
- Atlanta Regional Office – $248,000,000
- Austin Regional Office – $236,000,000
- Chicago Regional Office – $225,000,000
- Denver Regional Office – $193,000,000
- Philadelphia Regional Office – $259,000,000
- Headquarters – $40,000,000
What organizations are eligible for this funding?

- Economic Development District Organizations
- Indian Tribes
- State, county, city governments or other political subdivisions or special purpose districts
- Institutions of higher education
- Public or private non-profit organization or association acting in cooperation with officials of a political subdivision of a State.

- Not eligible: individuals or for-profit entities
Successful applications will respond to the impacts of coronavirus and develop and implement strategies to diversify regional economies

- EDA has determined that economic injury from the coronavirus pandemic constitutes a “Special Need,” and eligibility may be established on that basis without reference to the other economic distress criteria.

- Applicants must explain clearly in their application how the proposed project would “prevent, prepare for, and respond to coronavirus” or respond to “economic injury as a result of coronavirus.”
