If it isn’t located near jobs or transit, housing isn’t affordable.

We’re not as dense as we think we are. There is a lot of room to grow around transit stations.

Focus on displacement - growth shouldn’t build people out of communities.

There needs to be equity in job distribution. Our transportation system is bearing the burden.

A very small sample of comments
What’s Next

• 5th listening session:
  • Thursday, March 8 / 4 – 6 pm / Redmond Regional Library
  • 15990 NE 85th St, Redmond, WA 98052

• Continued direct contact, committee meetings, social media, and public opinion survey