Arlington Public Schools
- Future elementary school to be located near Highway 9, south of the Arlington urban growth area (potential site is within the red circle)

Everett Public Schools
- New high school (site acquired -- the school will be built on the part of the site in the urban area and the playfields will be located on the part of the site in the rural area)
- New school (site acquired)
- New elementary school (potential site is within the red circle)

Monroe School District
- New elementary school on Old Owen Corridor (site acquired)

Snohomish School District
- Construction of a new school on the site of the existing Dutch Hill Elementary School
- Construction of a new school on the site of the existing Cathcart Elementary School or on a new site (potential site is within the red circle)